

Municipalities with the Highest Drug War Death Rates in 2011

| Rank | Municipality                    | Population 2010Census | Jan - Dec2010TotalDeaths | Drug WarDeaths per100,000 in2010 | Jan - Sept2011TotalDeaths | DrugWarDeathsper100,000in 2011 | Increase inDeath Rate2010 to2011 | 2011DeathRate Ratioto Nat'lAvg |
|------|---------------------------------|---------------------------|--------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|
|      | MEXICO                   | 112,322,757        | 15,273                        | 13.60                                 | 12,903                         | 15.3                                        | 12.6%                                 | 1.00                                    |
| 1    | Mier, Tamaulipas                | 4,768                     | 93                                   | 1950.50                                      | 50                                    | 1398.2                                             | -28.3%                                       | 91.29                                          |
| 2    | Guerrero, Tamaulipas            | 4,468                     | 45                                   | 1007.16                                      | 35                                    | 1044.5                                             | 3.7%                                         | 68.19                                          |
| 3    | San Fernando, Tamaulipas        | 57,220                    | 169                                  | 295.35                                       | 292                                   | 680.4                                              | 130.4%                                       | 44.42                                          |
| 4    | Guadalupe, Chihuahua            | 6,458                     | 55                                   | 851.66                                       | 24                                    | 495.5                                              | -41.8%                                       | 32.35                                          |
| 5    | Gran Morelos, Chihuahua         | 3,209                     | 8                                    | 249.30                                       | 9                                     | 373.9                                              | 50.0%                                        | 24.41                                          |
| 6    | Cusihuiriachi, Chihuahua        | 5,414                     | 8                                    | 147.77                                       | 15                                    | 369.4                                              | 150.0%                                       | 24.12                                          |
| 7    | Tubutama, Sonora                | 1,735                     | 9                                    | 518.73                                       | 4                                     | 307.4                                              | -40.7%                                       | 20.07                                          |
| 8    | General Treviño, Nuevo León     | 1,277                     | 21                                   | 1644.48                                      | 2                                     | 208.8                                              | -87.3%                                       | 13.63                                          |
| 9    | Valle Hermosa, Tamaulipas       | 63,170                    | 56                                   | 88.65                                        | 95                                    | 200.5                                              | 126.2%                                       | 13.09                                          |
| 10   | Cosalá, Sinaloa                 | 16,697                    | 8                                    | 47.91                                        | 25                                    | 199.6                                              | 316.7%                                       | 13.03                                          |
| 11   | Matamoros, Chihuahua            | 4,499                     | 14                                   | 311.18                                       | 6                                     | 177.8                                              | -42.9%                                       | 11.61                                          |
| 12   | Tecpan de Galeana, Guerrero     | 62,071                    | 49                                   | 78.94                                        | 68                                    | 146.1                                              | 85.0%                                        | 9.54                                           |
| 13   | Satevo, Chihuahua               | 3,662                     | 5                                    | 136.54                                       | 4                                     | 145.6                                              | 6.7%                                         | 9.51                                           |
| 14   | Acapulco, Guerrero       | 789,978                   | 370                                  | 46.84                                        | 795                                   | 134.2                                              | 186.5%                                       | 8.76                                           |
| 15   | Yurécuaro, Michoacán            | 29,995                    | 7                                    | 23.34                                        | 29                                    | 128.9                                              | 452.4%                                       | 8.42                                           |
| 16   | Cuidad Juárez, Chihuahua | 1,328,017                 | 2,738                                | 50.49                                        | 1,206                                 | 121.1                                              | 139.8%                                       | 7.91                                           |
| 17   | Zihuatanejo de Azueta, Guerrero | 104,609                   | 16                                   | 15.30                                        | 90                                    | 114.7                                              | 650.0%                                       | 7.49                                           |
| 18   | Miguel Alemán, Tamaulipas       | 27,015                    | 110                                  | 407.18                                       | 23                                    | 113.5                                              | -72.1%                                       | 7.41                                           |
| 19   | San Ignacio, Sinaloa            | 22,527                    | 22                                   | 97.66                                        | 19                                    | 112.5                                              | 15.2%                                        | 7.34                                           |
| 20   | Ascensión, Chihuahua            | 23,894                    | 56                                   | 234.37                                       | 19                                    | 106.0                                              | -54.8%                                       | 6.92                                           |